

"State Archives of the Russian Federation"

Preserving Legacy: “Inside the Russian State Archive”

VISIT WEBSITE:

[HTTPS://STATEARCHIVE.RU/CONTACTS
.HTML](https://statearchive.ru/contacts.html)

About :

The State Archives of the Russian Federation (GA RF) is the largest federal archive in Russia, storing approximately 7 million files on 19th-21st century Russian history. It succeeded the Central State Archives of the October Revolution, Supreme Bodies of State Authority, and Central State Archives of the RSFSR.

WHAT IS STATE ARCHIVES OF THE RUSSIAN FEDERATION ?

MISSION

"Dedicated to preserving and providing access to Russia's historical documents, from the 16th century through the Soviet era to modern times."

COLLECTION

Imperial Records, Soviet Government Files, WWII Documents, and Personal Archives of significant Russian figures.

ACTIVITIES

- Catalogue of publications of the state archives of the Russian Federation
- Online Publications
- price list of paid service

EDUCATIONAL AND PUBLIC PROGRAM

- exhibitions
- public lectures
- historical workshops.

THE EXHIBITION HALL

The Exhibition Hall of the Federal State Archives was created by order of the Federal Archival Service of Russia in February 2000 and is a structural subdivision of the State Archives of the Russian Federation. It is a sectoral cultural and educational center for the popularization of historical documents.

PUBLIC RECEPTION

MONDAY-THURSDAY FROM
10:00 to 16:00

CONTACT

E-mail :
garf@statearchive.ru

CONFERENCE OFFICE

1. 119435, Moscow, Bolshaya
Pirogovskaya St., 17

MORE INFORMATION

Website : <https://statearchive.ru/contacts.html>